We do not require an application for Freedom of our Company to be supported by a proposer. However, if you know a Company member(s) who has encouraged you to join please provide their details below

Name(s):

Note

- The Applicant should complete sections 1-4, and send the completed form to the Clerk (as Registrar of the Company). This may be done by post or email.
- The Freedom of the Company is a contractual matter annually renewable on payment of the quarterage and it is expected that someone joining the Livery will intend to do so for life.
- An application fee of £100.00 will be required when Admitted together with the quarterage for 2017/18 which is £300.00
- Applicants admitted to the Freedom are required to attend a ceremony organised by the Educators Company to make their declaration to the Master and Court members. At the Declaration Ceremony a Company officer introduces each declarant by providing information drawn from a 50-word career summary.
- Please provide your summary on the final page:

50-word career summary

This summary will be used to introduce you to membership at the declaration ceremony and in print in the Educator – please keep to the limit
